TO: David Scott Barber, Manager Matin Investments, LLC 1436 2nd Street, Suite 181 Napa, California 94559 And 2933 Brookwood Drive Napa, California 94558

DESIST AND REFRAIN ORDER

(For violations of section 25401 of the Corporations Code)

The California Corporations Commissioner finds that:

- 1. David Scott Barber is an owner and sole manager of Matin Investments, LLC, a California limited liability corporation. Matin Investments, LLC was first incorporated on April 24, 2008 but its corporate status was subsequently canceled. It filed for incorporation again on September 30, 2009 and its corporate status is currently "active" according to records of the California Secretary of State. Its registered business address with the California Secretary of State is 1436 2nd Street, Suite 181, Napa, California 94559 and it also listed 2933 Brookwood Drive, Napa, California 94558 as its business address on documents provided to investors and as the address for its agent for service of process, David Scott Barber.
- 2. In or about 2008, David Scott Barber and Matin Investments, LLC offered and sold investments which included "Investment Agreements" in Matin Investments, LLC to members of the general public. The Investment Agreements terms included that the investor would receive 2 shares of common stock in Matin Investments, LLC for every dollar invested, in addition to getting all the money invested paid back within 6 months with 15% interest and monthly payments to investors starting within 30 days after the investment is received. During this time David Scott Barber and Matin Investments, LLC also solicited and accepted funds in California to provide investment advice and "financial services" to clients of Matin Investments, LLC. According to promotional materials provided to prospective investors one "offering" called the "monthly income accelerator" was claimed to have doubled all the investors' money. Other promotional materials claimed their "investment strategy" had a target of 33% per year return on investments. Contrary to these representations, investors who purchased Investment Agreements and shares in Matin Investments, LLC and who had Matin Investments, LLC and David Scott Barber execute investments for them, lost their entire investment.

- 3. The investments offered and sold by David Scott Barber and Matin Investments, LLC including the "Investment Agreements" and stock in Matin Investments, LLC constitute securities. The Department of Corporations previously issued a Desist and Refrain Order dated December 29, 2010 to David Scott Barber and Matin Investments, LLC for violation of section 25110 of the Corporations Code prohibiting the sale of unqualified securities as well as violation of section 25230 of the Corporations Code for acting as an investment adviser in the State of California without a certificate authorizing them to do so. That order can be viewed at the Department of Corporations website at www.corp.ca.gov/ENF/pdf/2010/MatinInvestments_dr.pdf.
- 4. In addition to the violations of the Corporations Code alleged in the December 29, 2010 Desist and Refrain Order referred to above, in or about 2009 David Scott Barber and Matin Investments, LLC and their agents, also offered and sold securities by means of written and oral communications which included untrue statements of material fact and which omitted to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading. The omission of material facts included the failure to inform the investors that David Scott Barber had previously filed for bankruptcy in 2001, and that between 1999 and 2004 David Scott Barber had numerous state and federal tax liens filed against him for failure to pay taxes. The untrue statements of material fact made to prospective investors included the fact that prior Matin Investments, LLC investors had received a 50% return on their investment when in fact they had suffered losses.
- 5. David Scott Barber and Matin Investments, LLC are named as defendants in a civil law suit filed on March 15, 2010 in Napa County Superior court by former Matin Investments, LLC investors claiming damages for investment losses. A judgment was entered in that action against David Scott Barber and Matin Investments, LLC for over 1 million dollars on July 14, 2010.
